

Classes held at BC3
Main Campus-Butler

Manufacturing Pre-Apprenticeship Certificate

Designed to develop entry-level skills that enable graduates to start a career in manufacturing. Careers include Machine Operators, Machinist Apprentices, Quality Apprentices, CNC Apprentices, Assemblers, Maintenance, Press Operators, etc.

Grant-Funded & Free to Students

This program is grant-funded by the Tri-County Workforce Investment Board. It is FREE to students who meet the requirements. Class materials are covered as well as an opportunity to earn 2 NIMS and 3 NTMA credentials.

Requirements:

- Successful completion of a drug screening
- Certified background check
- Vocational screening assessment
- High School Diploma or Equivalency

January 14 - March 7*

Monday, Tuesday, Wednesday, Thursday
8:00 a.m. to 12:00 p.m.

Topics covered:

- Basic shop safety
- Basic blueprint reading
- Hand and electronic measuring instruments
- Quality processes and procedures
- Manufacturing processes
- Basic shop equipment operation
- Introduction to CNC
- Industrial fork truck classroom certification

In addition to the dates and times above, students will study these specific topics:

Employability Skills -

March 8, 11 & 12 - 8:00 a.m. to 12:00 p.m.

OSHA 10 -

March 13 & 14 - 8:00 a.m. to 1:30 p.m.

Contact:

Kelly McKissick, Coordinator of Professional Education & Certificate Programs

724-287-8711 ext. 8171

www.bc3.edu/certificates