

Classes held ONLINE
and
at BC3@Lawrence Crossing

Manufacturing Pre-Apprenticeship Certificate

Designed to develop entry-level skills that enable graduates to start a career in manufacturing. Careers include Machine Operators, Machinist Apprentices, Quality Apprentices, CNC Apprentices, Assemblers, Maintenance, Press Operators, etc.

Grant-Funded & Free to Students

This program is grant-funded by the PA Department of Labor & Industry. It is FREE to students who meet the requirements. Class materials are covered as well as an opportunity to earn 2 NIMS and 3 NTMA credentials and DOL Registered Pre-Apprenticeship Certificate.

Requirements:

- Successful completion of a drug screening
- Certified background check
- Vocational screening assessment
- High School Diploma or Equivalency

Contact:

Sheila Lobota
West Central Job Partnership
724-347-9257, Ext. 106- slobota@wcjp.org

August 8 9am-11am ORIENTATION
at BC3@Lawrence Crossing

August 12 - Oct 3*

ONLINE course with class meeting on Thursdays 8:00 a.m. to 12:00 p.m.

Topics covered:

- Basic shop safety
- Basic blueprint reading
- Hand and electronic measuring instruments
- Quality processes and procedures
- Manufacturing processes
- Basic shop equipment operation
- Introduction to CNC
- Industrial fork truck classroom certification

In addition to the dates and times above, students will study these specific topics:

OSHA 10 -

Oct 7 & 8 - 8:00 a.m. to 1:30 p.m.

Employability Skills -

Oct 9, 10 & 11 - 8:00 a.m. to 12:00 p.m.

