

Inpatient healthcare facilities, including primary-care hospitals, nursing homes, mental health facilities and rehabilitation centers are now eligible for ES and TS training.

Applications accepted beginning June 1st.
Call today for more information.

BC3 has assisted hundreds of manufacturing and technology-based companies in obtaining grant funds through the Pennsylvania Department of Community and Economic Development for Essential Skills and Technical Skills training.

2019-2020 TRAINING FUNDS AVAILABLE!

for eligible training completed between July 1, 2019 – June 30, 2020

wednetpa.com

Essential Skills Training

- Up to $600 per person -

- Computer Operations
- Problem Solving
- Quality Assurance
- Business Operations
- Leadership and Supervision
- Communications and Teamwork
- Product and Process Control
- Bloodborn Pathogens
- Lifting and Transferring of Patients
- Preventing Slips and Falls
- First Aid, CPR, OSHA for Healthcare
- Dementia Management

Technical Skills Training

- Up to $1,200 per person -

- Industrial Electricity (not safety)
- AWS Technical Essentials
- GD&T
- Hydraulics / Pneumatics
- Advanced Math
- Root Cause Analysis
- Software Implementation
- Blueprint & Schematic Reading
- Information Security
- Data Base Development
- Website Design and Development

- ✓ APPLY Determine if your company is eligible. When eligibility is confirmed, complete the online application and training plan to request grant funds. wednetpa.com
- ✓ TRAIN Once your application is approved and you receive your award, start training using the provider of your choice.
- ✓ INVOICE When training is completed, submit your documentation online, and you'll be reimbursed for eligible costs.

- CONTACT -

Kathy Strobel – Coordinator, Business Training & WEDnetPA Partner
(724) 287-8711 x8267 kathleen.strobel@bc3.edu

#1 COMMUNITY COLLEGE IN PA
3 Consecutive Rankings