Lunch & Learn

DOWNTOWN BUTLER

Enjoy lunch while learning useful and professional skills for the workplace.

11:30 a.m. to 1:30 p.m.

$15 per person, per session.

$35 per person for all 3 sessions.

Lunch provided by local eateries in downtown Butler.

SERIES PRESENTER:
Elizabeth Short,
Executive Director,
YWCA Butler

Diversity, Equity & Inclusion Series

NOVEMBER 10

Inclusive Conversations

Location: YWCA, 120 West Cunningham Street

Learn how to encourage dialogue in the workplace, set ground rules for culturally sensitive conversations, go from polarization to common ground, and learn practical ways to discuss difficult topics.

MARCH 23

Power & Privilege

Location: Holly Pointe Building, 220 South Main Street

Learn to build strategies and practices for interrupting the expression of "isms" in our sphere of influence. Through understanding our own identities and the connection between power and privilege, we can become better allies.

APRIL 20

Intent Vs. Impact

Location: YWCA, 120 West Cunningham Street

Explore the ways words and actions can unconsciously and consciously affect individuals across different identities. Learn how to address microaggressions and develop helpful responses for a healthy work environment.

Register online!

Visit bc3.edu/lunch-learn

or call 724-287-8711, ext. 8476 for corporate billing and/or discount pricing.

– Sponsored by –

Butler County Community College

Butler County Chamber of Commerce